This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTE

In 1880 announcement was made in London that certain papers of Benjamin Franklin were to be sold at auction. The history of these papers was as follows:

They "were bequeathed to William Temple Franklin by Dr. Franklin, and were used by him in the preparation of his edition of 'Memoirs of the life and writings of Benjamin Franklin,' 3 vols., London, 8 vo. [1818]; they bear ample evidence of his editorial work, a large quantity of matter having been struck out; in fact, in printing his grandfather's works, he seems to have proceeded on the idea of omitting everything which reflected on the British Government. Many of the private letters and other papers are also unpublished. After the death of William Temple Franklin [in 1823] the papers were for some years in the possession of his landlord, a tailor, in London, who disposed of them, some thirty years back, to Mr. Henry Stevens, where they have since remained."[a]

The sale was ordered by the executors of Charles Whittingham, to whom they had been pledged as security by Henry Stevens, a settlement of the Whittingham estate being necessary. The public sale was postponed and the entire collection was offered at private sale to the United States Government. The purchase was consummated in 1882.

The collection contained not only manuscripts of Franklin but also many letters to him, state papers, diplomatic record books, and printed books and newspapers. At the time of the purchase a division was made, the manuscripts going to the Department of State, and the printed matter to the Library of Congress. And when the general transfer of the manuscripts was made by the Department of State to the Library of Congress, under the Executive order of March 9, 1903, the diplomatic records were retained in that Department. What is known as the "second series" was transferred, a collection bound in fourteen volumes, with a few additional pieces, such as the "Articles of Belief" and the letter to Strahan. In Senate Miscellaneous Document No. 21, 47th Congress, 1st session, was printed a list of the entire Stevens's collection of Franklin material; but that list is of little or no service to the student of history or the antiquarian. The arrangement was defective and the many errors in names and dates proved misleading.

The following list, prepared by Mr. John C. Fitzpatrick of this division, is not intended to be a full calendar, but is designed to indicate the principal subject-matter of each paper, and to note the use of the material by John Bigelow (Writings of Benjamin Franklin, 10 vols. New York: 1887–1888). The arrangement is strictly chronological, and such Franklin manuscripts as were found in other collections in the Library of Congress are inserted in their proper order in time. The calendar thus includes the whole of the second series of the Stevens's collection, with much other matter hitherto unlisted. An index will aid the investigator in locating a particular writer or subject. The titles or offices attached to the names in the index are confined to those actually held by the writers in the period covered by their letters or papers.

I think it a fitting opportunity to explain the form of the calendar. The division has issued two most elaborate calendars of material in its possession, that of the Washington Papers, 1901, and that of the John Paul Jones, 1903. The Jones calendar contained 883 entries, and occupied the labor of an expert two full years to complete, allowance being made for interruptions. The Washington list demanded nearly the same amount of time and labor. The cost of calendaring is thus excessive, and frequently would exceed the value of the collection treated. Nor has experience shown the advantage of such minute descriptions of documents, the entry in the calendar sometimes containing more words than the document itself. The investigator can never be satisfied with any summary of contents, but must refer to the original letter, and nothing short of a full publication can meet his needs. In place of a full calendar a partial one has here been made, in which only the leading names and subjects are noted. The names of the writer and of the person to whom written, the place and time of date and a brief reference to the matter of the paper—these are sufficient to serve as a general guide to the nature of the collection. The time saved is of importance, a few months sufficing for the preparation of such a partial calendar, and three or four collections can be made available within the same time as one collection formerly required.

1772–3 Dec. 2–Dec. 31 Franklin, B[enjamin.] Extracts from correspondence relating to Hutchinson and Oliver's letters.

(1) Absurdity of claim that he attempted to conceal his name in letter of Dec. 2, 1772. [This portion Franklin afterwards crossed over with red ink. The substance of it but in different words appears in the other two drafts, 94 and 120 of the Franklin Papers, q. v. and in the later form is printed: Works (Bigelow) N. Y. 1887. 5, 386.]

(2) Dec. 2, 1772.—Franklin to [Thomas Cushing.] Extract of letter transmitting the Hutchinson and Oliver letters with his caustic comments thereon; they may be shown to [James] Bowdoin, [James] Pitts, [Charles] Chauncey, [Samuel] Cooper, [John] Winthrop and others.

(3) Jan. 5, 1773.—Franklin to [Thomas Cushing.] Extract proving that Franklin never sent an anonymous communication to Boston.

(6) Mar. 9, 1773.—Franklin to Cushing. Extract relating to keeping the people quiet.

(7) May 6, 1773.—Franklin to Cushing. Extract as further proof of no attempt to conceal his name.

(8) June 2, 1773, and June 4.—Franklin to Cushing. Extract relative to permission to copy or publish letters.

(9) July 7, 1773.—Franklin to Cushing. Extract. Cannot obtain leave to have letters copied but they may be shown to any one.

(10) July 14, 1773.—[Cushing] to Franklin. Extract relating to secrecy and attempts to prevent letters becoming generally known; printed copies circulated in the Massachusetts House of Representatives.

(11) July 25, 1773.—Franklin to [Cushing]. Extract respecting use of his name in connection with letters.

(12) [June 14, 1773.]—Cooper, Samuel to Franklin. Extract respecting secrecy of Franklin's name.

(13) July 25, 1773.—Franklin to Cooper. Extract denying that he placed restriction on the use of his name.

(14) Nov. 10, 1773.—Cooper to Franklin. Extract admiring Franklin's openness in the affair.

(15) July 25, 1773.—Franklin to [John Winthrop]. Extract regarding rights of colonies, their growing strength and dependence of mother country thereon.

(16) Dec. 31, 1773.—[Winthrop, John] to Franklin. Extract relative to agitation in America over evident purpose of Ministry to subject people; petitions and results; duty on tea and disturbances; consequences feared. Auto. draft. 8 pp. 92–93

(This ms. is apparently the extracts made to be inserted at places marked in the: Account of Franklin's connection with affair of Hutchinson letters. 1772–3. These extracts in connection with that document do not make up the complete "Account" as printed by Bigelow and others, being lacking in the Report of the Committee of the Mass. House of Reps. of June 15, 1773, the Petition to the King and certain other documents.)

The complete tract is printed: Works (Bigelow) N. Y. 1887. 5 378–416.

1773 Dec. 31 Winthrop, John to Benjamin Franklin. See: Franklin. Extracts from correspondence. 1772–3, Dec. 2–Dec. 31.

1772–3 [Franklin, Benjamin.] Account of connection with affair of Hutchinson letters. Auto. draft. 16 pp. 88–91

(This ms. is the running narrative of the explanatory tract prepared by Franklin for publication, the various letters, resolves, petitions etc., quoted are not here given but the places for their insertion are marked. The document was not published by Franklin and first appeared in print in Temple Franklin's edition of the Works.)

The complete tract, with all insertions, etc., properly placed, is printed: Works (Bigelow) N. Y. 1887. 5, 378–416, with minor verbal variations from this ms.

1772–3 [Franklin, Benjamin.] Account of connection with affair of Hutchinson letters. Copy. 26 pp. 94–119

(This ms. is a copy of the original drafts, 88–91; 92–93 and 120–131 q. v. made, apparently, for W. T. Franklin's Memoirs, and, with the exceptions of the Mass. House of Reprs. petition to the King, Franklin's letter to Dartmouth, Aug. 21, 1773, and Dartmouth's answer, Aug. 25, and the card inserted in the Public Advertiser after the Whately-Temple duel, contains all extracts of letters, copies of papers, etc., etc., properly placed.)

The complete tract is printed: Works (Bigelow) N. Y. 1887. 5, 378–416.

1772–3 [Franklin, Benjamin.] Account of connection with affair of Hutchinson letters. Copy. 23 pp. 120–131

(This ms. is the major portion of what seems to have been the final draft of the "Account." The first pages are missing and it begins abruptly in the midst of Franklin's refutation of the charge that he endeavored to conceal his identity. From this point it is complete to the end, all excerpts, papers quoted, etc., being given.)

The complete tract is printed: Works (Bigelow) N. Y. 1887. 5, 378–416.
